Dr. Bryan d. in 1817, and his widow and children were supported by her brother, John Henry Earle Berkeley, of Mount Horne, Grenada.

Maurice Berkeley's elder dau. and coh. was Elizabeth Earle, who m. Charles Bryan. Her sister, Mrs. Anne Hardtman, d. in 1851, not 1864.

George Berkeley had a dau. Lucy, who m . . . Newman and left a dau. Lizzie and a son, both living in 1877 in St. Kitts.

John Henry Earle Berkeley owned a family bible in which the names of all his family were entered, from which the following additional notes are derived.

Mary Eliz. was born, and died in Lisbon.

George was also born in that city. He once visited the W. I., staying at Cedar Hill, Antigua, as appears from one of his letters which I have seen. He died at Nice. His wife, Frances Mary Bolden (not Bolton), sister of a Rev. John Bolden, d. 1 March 1887, aged 72; buried in the old cemetery, Mentone.

Maurice Henry Hewitson was b. at Paradise Estate, Grenada; d. in the nursing home at St Thomas Hospital, 22 July 1887, and was buried at Elmer's End Cemetery, Crystal Palace. The next six children were all born at Mount Horne.

Henry was Provost-Marshal 30 (not 40) years. Thomas settled as a merchant in London in 1798, resided for several years in Brussels, where he d. 22 Aug. 1836, in his 66th year, and was buried in the cemetery, near the grave of Mrs. Sam. Byam of Antigua, but there is no monument. His wife, b. 1790, was dau. of Capt. Anthony Young, by Eliz., dau. of Stedman Rawlins (Ante, V., 99). She is called Mary in her M.I. She rem. 12 June 1842, in London, Major W. H. Hartman, of whom nothing is known. He predeceased her, dying at St Ann's Bay, Jamaica, where he was residing with his eldest son Edward (evidently by a previous wife). She d. 8 March 1874, aged 84, M.I. at Lympstone.

Tho. Berkely left an only child, Mina Eliz., b. probably in London; was with her mother in St Kitts, 1815–17; mar. Frederick Belson, Capt., Rifle Brigade. She died at Exmouth 21 May 1897, aged 81. They had several children, one of whom was Berkeley G. A. Belson, Capt. R.N., of Southsea, 1905-11, who was married and had two sons and one dau.

P. 20. Augustus Frederick Manning B. was b. in the Rue du Calle, Brussels.

Alfred Pownall (not Powell) B. was b. in the Rue Royale, Brussels, and d. 17 Dec. 1859, at Mount Horne.

Adèle Caroline Mary B. was also b. in Brussels. She d. at Worthing, and had a dau. Julia. Lucy was b. at Lisson Lodge, London, and d. at Penge.

P. 21. Maurice B. was never in Fiji. His only son, Kenneth Maurice, was killed in action in 1916.

John Henry Earle Berkeley, of Mount Horne, Grenada, wrote a long journal about the year 1831, describing his mercantile and plantation affairs. From an abstract of this I give a few notes. The writer, aged 2 at his father's death in 1786, was a midshipman from 1797-1801, and on attaining the age of 21, in 1805, inherited £5,000 c. He married in 1808, went to England in 1810, became partner with his uncle, Thomas B., and engaged in various mercantile pursuits in the Peninsula. At the Peace they purchased the Paradise Estate in Grenada for £35,000 c., which John managed from 1815-26. They purchased, in 1826, Mount Horne and Plaiscene for £34,500, and, in 1827, Paraclete for £11,000. The two families resided for some years in Brussels, and there were numerous visits to the W.I.

Hartman of St. Croix.

The surplus population of St. Kitts spread over the adjacent islands of St. Croix and St. Eustatius or Statia, and it is probable that these Hartmans of St. Croix were a branch of the Hardtmans of St. Kitts, though the exact proof has not been discovered. The family was undoubtedly of Huguenot origin. St. Croix being now American, the Editor wrote to the Registrar for information about the local records, but no reply has been received.

VIRGINIA AND ANTIGUA.

Virginia. Cha. Dunbar of the Island of Antigua, esq., only surviving and acting Ex'or of Tho. Dunbar Parke, late of said Island, dec^{d}, Appellant. Daniel Parke Custis, esq., son and heir, and Ex'or of John C. of Virginia, esq., dec^{d}, Respondent.

Appellant's Case.

Daniel Parke, formerly Capt.-Gen., etc., of the Leeward Charibee Islands, being seized of a large estate in V. and G. B., but greatly indebted in the Leeward Islands on account of purchase of lands and slaves, charged his debts on his V. and G. B. estate, and by Will dated 29 Jan. 1709 gave his estate in the Leeward Islands to Lucy Chester, dau. of M^{rs} Cath. C., but if she died before 21 to her said mother, and after her mother's death to his godson Julius Cæsar P., remainder to the heirs of his daus. Fra. Custis and Lucy Byrd. He also gave to his dau. F. C., wife of John C., his estate in V. or Eng., she to pay all legacies and debts and £1000 to his dau. Lucy Byrd, etc. The Hampshire estate at Whitchurch was afterwards sold away by the Ex'ors. Lucy Chester took testator's name and arms and married Tho. Dunbar, and became entitled to the whole of the estate in Leeward Islands, applied to John Custis, Respondent for the same, but he refusing the Appellants filed their Bill in the Court of Chancery of Virginia, reciting Act of Virginia of 10 Anne that John C. and his wife Frances were seized of D. P.'s lands in the cos. of York, James City, New Kent, and K. Wm., it was enacted that Scimino Mill, co. York, and 900 acres in New Kent, 900 acres, and 1875 acres, 2000 acres, 200 acres in Jas. City, 3805 acres in King Wm., 50 slaves were to be sold to satisfy testator's debts, and said lands were sold, but Custis never paid the debts in the Leeward Islands, and £5,421 c. has been levied there being £4,500 st.

John Custis answered that D. P. left only 2 legitimate children, Fra., whom the Defendant married, and Lucy, who was married to W^{m} Byrd, esq., both which daus. had been dead several years, but Fra. left a son and dau. then living, and Lucy left 2 daus. also living. Has paid all legacies and debts in V. and Eng. The Whitchurch estate was worth £250 a year for three lives, and was mortgaged by D. P. before he went to the Leeward Islands for £2,100 to Barnes, who exhibited his Bill in Chancery in G. B., and it was sold by decree for £1000. Will of D. P. was not signed in the presence of 3 witnesses. The lands in Virginia were those of Daniel's father, who by will of 11 Aug. 1677 devised them to his son, and they descended to Fra. and Lucy, and a partition was made and he is seized of 574 acres.

29 July 1734. Answer of Cæsar Rodney that the debts in Antigua were £6,735 c.

1 May 1734. A commission was ordered for examining witnesses in England, but it was not carried out. Thos. Dunbar Parke died soon after having by Will dated 27 Nov. 1734 appointed the Appellant Cha. Dunbar an Ex'or.

A commission met 23 Nov. 1748 to examine witnesses in Antigua. Cæsar Rodney being dead and Lucy Parke living in Antigua, and D. P.'s will was established, and copies of the whole record sent to Virg[a].

The Def[t] John Custis d. Apr. 1750 leaving the now Resp. his son and heir and Ex'or, and in Oct. 1750 a second Bill of reviver was exhibited against Mic. Perry, Lucy Chester Parke, Dan. Parke Custis and Tho. Chamberlayne and Wilhelmina his wife, the only surviving dau. and heir of Lucy Byrd. Tho. Dunbar P. devised his estate to his wife and 3 children Daniel, Eliz. and Lucy. Test[r] had clandestinely m. said Lucy at 11 years of age. In 1723 she was not 14.

10 Apr. 1754. Decree in Virg. Bill dismissed, Cha. Dunbar to pay costs to Def[ts] D. P. Custis. C. D. appeals to H. M. in C.

After carrying out the sale and paying debts and legacies to £10,000 J. C. had remaining for his wife's portion 61 slaves, 4,033 acres besides 587 acres intailed worth less than £4,000. (Add. MS. 36,217, fo. 161.)

BARBADOS.

Barbados. Sam. Adams, esq. (nephew and heir to his uncle Sam. A. the Elder, who was eldest son and heir of his father John A., who was the eldest son and tenant in tail under his father Sam. A., esq., the Eldest), and who is called Ex'or (but is not so) of his great uncle John A.; Geo. Graeme, esq., called Ex'or of Tho. Maxwell, esq., dec[d]; Eliz. Maxwell, spr., called heir at law and resid[y] devisee of her late father said Tho. M.; Tho. Ince, esq., and Eliz. his wife, she being called heir at law and Representative (but not so) of Rob. Bishop (son of Rob. B.) either dead or absent, Appellants. W[m] Sturge, esq., called Ad' de bonis non of said Rob. Bishop the father, Respondent.

The Appellants' Case.

Sam. Adams the Eldest being seized in fee made his Will 20 Oct. 1663, and intailed his Upper pl[n] upon his s. John and died in or before 1666. John the s. possessed the estate and acquired another pl[n] called the Lower pl[n]. In 1701 he conveyed to his eldest s. Sam. the Elder a moiety of the Upper pl[n]. Said John by his will of 14 Jan. 1707 devised to his eldest s. Sam. the Elder the Upper pl. (which he had no power to devise), and gave to his dau. Margt. £1500 c. at 16. He devised his Lower pl. (which he had power to devise) to a younger s. John, and gave Margt. another legacy of £500 c. at 17 out of his Lower pl., named his eldest s. Sam the Elder, Ex'or, and died in or before 1709. Sam. the Elder never proved his father's will because he would not subject himself to the demands of his father's creditors, but took the Upper pl[n] under his grandfather's intail, and John, younger s. of John enjoyed the Lower pl[n]. John A. the younger s. of John made his will 14 Feb. 1712, and gave another £500 legacy to his sister Margt. at 18, and gave residue to Wm. A. and afterwards died.

Rob. Bishop, a s. of Dorothy B. wid. in 1721, made his addresses to Margt. A., but her brother Sam. the Elder was averse, as Rob. and his mother were in debt, but Rob., assisted by M[r] John Gibbons his att[y] at law and counsel, made up fraudulent deeds from Doro. to Rob. conveying to him small parcels of land and negroes dated 19 Dec. 1721. Her brother still refusing consent Margaret m. Rob. B. 23 Dec. 1721. 3 Apr. 1722 R. B. and his wife sued the widow and h. of Will. A. (resid[y] devisee of his bro. John) for the 2 legacies of £500 each, and levied on lands and negroes. Rob. B. died 4 Jan. 1726 intestate, and M[r] Gibbons obtained adm'on. No demand was ever made for the £1,500 legacy. R. B. left said Margt. his widow and 3 very young children by her, a s. Rob., a dau., the now App. Eliz. Ince, and another child all in the greatest distress. Rob. B.'s mother Dorothy took the widow and 3 children, the eldest not 3, into her house, but John Gibbons seized their effects, then her relations took charge of them. Margaret survived her husb[d] 2 or 3 years, and Tho. Maxwell m. her 17 May 1728. She died 9 May 1729 leaving an only child by him, Eliz. M., one of the App.

19 June 1729. Tho. M. took out adm'on to her.

23 Dec. 1732. John Gibbons as adm'or of Rob. B. brought his Bill in Ch[y] against Sam. Adams the Elder for the legacy of £1,500, against Rob. B., inf. s. and h. of Rob. B. dec[d], against Tho. Maxwell, and claimed he was creditor of Rob. B. dec[d] for £4,500, and put in pretended jointure deeds.

6 June 1734. Answer of Sam. A. the Elder denying facts.

11 May 1737. The Presid[t] of the C. referred case to the Master and on 2 Dec. it was dismissed. M[r] G. died about a year after (31 Jan. 1737 is mentioned later), and appointed the now Resp. W[m] Sturge one of his Ex'ors, and the case was not heard of for 16 years, but on 10 Jan. 1754 W[m] Sturge filed a motion in the C[t] of Ch[y]. Tho. Maxwell died in America, and made his will and appointed Hon. Ra. Weekes, Hon. Tho. Applewhaite, esq., since dec[d], Hon. Geo. Graeme and Tho. Adams, esq., Ex'ors. Rob. Bishop the inf. died in parts beyond the seas, or has not been heard of these 15 years. Sam. A. now of the parish of X[t] Ch., Eliz. Ince, late Eliz. Bishop, spr., wife of Tho. I. of X[t] Ch., esq., is sister of said Rob. B. the inf.

9 July 1755. The motion was granted from which order the now App. appeal. To be heard 8 July 1757. In writing: "Order reversed." (Add. MS. 36,217, fo. 172.)

Major John Wickham of Antigua.

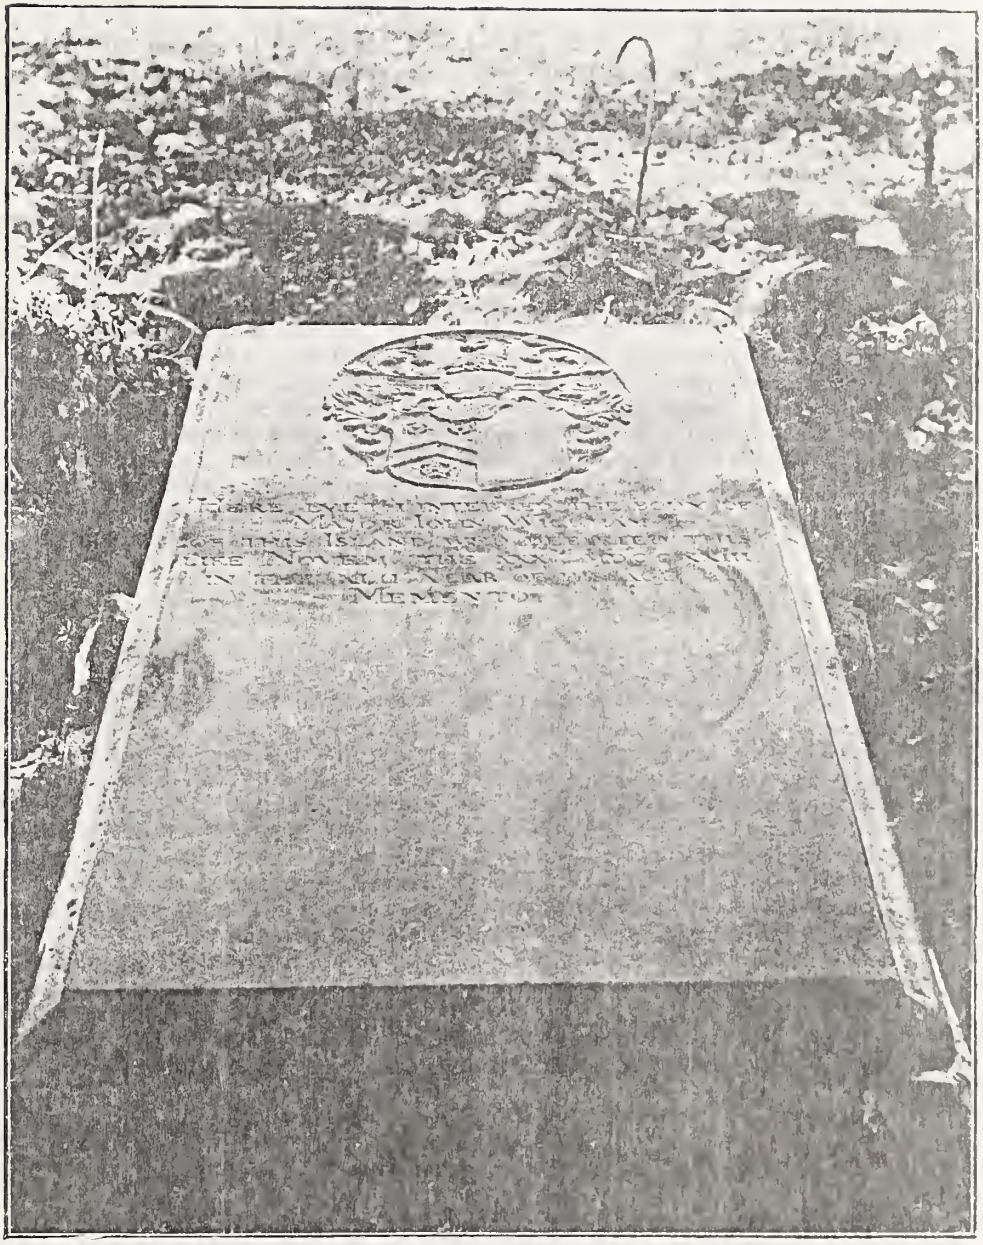
This marble slab covers a stone vault in the old family burial ground at Upper Freeman's plantation in the parish of St. Peter, Parham.

The armorial work is of fine quality, very sharp and distinct, in spite of its age of nigh 200 years. The wife's coat is not given, probably because she was not entitled to one.

Such stones were sent out from England, and usually ordered from the same merchants who supplied the estates with stores.

They are fairly numerous in the islands, both on the floors of the churches and in the churchyards. In the former the naked feet of the blacks did not wear away their surface, and in the latter there was no frost to flake them.

The photograph was supplied by Mr. Josè Anjo, in whose studio in St. John's I have seen quite the best photographic work in the Leeward Islands.



Upper Freemans', Parish of St. Peter, Antigua.

Lawrence of Jamaica.

The following pedigree has been drawn up from family papers at Cowesfield House, which the Editor was invited to examine in July 1913. He then checked it with the late Capt. Lawrence Archer's papers in the British Museum (Add. MS. 31,228) wherein (fo. 27) is this note :—

"This Lawrence of Jamaica pedigree I have most carefully constructed from original sources, public records, private relics of the family and early correspondence, etc. I have however omitted as unnecessary the names of estates and the rank in the local militia held by many of these persons. In short this is simply a pedigree of blood and not of 'honours and rewards.' J. H. Lawr. Archer."

John Lawrence the first settler is given in Hoare's "S. Wilts," v., 74, as a son of Henry Lawrence, M.P., the President of the Council under Cromwell. John's will, which I have perused, gives no evidence in support of such claim, and the present head of the family, Mr. W. F. Lawrence of Cowesfield, does not wish to put forward any statement which cannot be proved. He agrees that we do not at present know John's parentage. The family tradition is that he left England with James Bradshaw* and landed in Barbados, whence he removed to Jamaica, arriving at Lucea in 1676, abode there in the house of the widow Dunn, situated at Dunshole, a bay in St. James, and married her shortly after. There was a family of L., resident in Winterborne Whitchurch, Dorset, in the 17th cent. with arms obliterated, but crest the usual fish's tail. Of whom John s. of John was bapt. in 1619 and John buried in 1666 and 1691. (Hutchins, i., 201.)

The Lawrences of Creech Grange in Purbeck entered their ped. in the Visitation of 1623. Arms: Arg., a cross ragulée Gu. (Ibid., 599.)

Fo. 31. "There was an intimate connection between certain Jamaica and American families of Lawrence, and I have pedigree of Pennsylvanian Lawrences who had estates in Jamaica and eventually settled in the latter island.

"Some of these Lawrences were connected by marriage with Sir Philip Francis (Junius?) and with the family of Wm. Penn the Founder of Pennsylvania. There was also a double connection through the families of Allen and Masters. John Lawrence (will 1690) is said to have been a son of Henry L. Cromwell's President of Council and his descendant James of Fairfield is given his arms in Burke's General Armory. (Fairfield in St. James, Jamaica.)

Lawrence L. is supposed to have been the last of the family of Iver in Bucks. He was born in the 17th cent. His daughters lived to a very advanced age and that (? the will—Ed.) of the eldest surviving (Mrs. Cath. Franklyn is recorded 1831*) at Doctors Commons.

There was also a branch of an Irish family of Lawrence at Portland, Jamaica. Mr. Roby's "History of the Parish of St. James" is found on a comparison with Lawrence wills to be inaccurate in several instances."

The White Servants Act.

In the year 1830 a petition from the Coloured Inhabitants of Antigua against certain alleged legal disabilities, was presented to the House of Commons, and this was printed in Antigua I., eli. It came into my possession about the year 1893, by purchase from Mr. Jas. Coleman, the dealer. After an interval of 17 years, the papers marked Nos. 2, 3, 4, and 5, together with three original letters have just come to me from Mr. Coleman's successor. No. 3 lacks the signatures of the 106 whites. No. 4, which I now give, is endorsed :—

"A concise view of the rise and progress of the White Servants Act, and of the method resorted to at this time to defeat its provisions."

By certain laws of the Colony passed as early as the year 1716 Proprietors of Slaves are compelled under a heavy annual penalty of £53 . 6 . 8 to have in their service one White Man for every forty Slaves in possession and this Amount of Penalty is incurred for each deficiency of a White Man to that number of Slaves; to enforce which a return is made on Oath every Year to the Treasurer who levies the Penalty on every deficiency and this Law is termed "The White Servants' Act."

In order to make the cause and nature of this enactment more clear it is necessary to refer to the circumstances which rendered it at that time both proper and politic. The original Grantees of Lands were composed of Gentlemen to whom the Colony was given by His Majesty King Charles the first, and these were followed by other persons of fortune who emigrated during the rebellion which took place in that reign. To begin the cultivation it was necessary to import White Labourers from the Mother Country, who became indented servants, and their influx was so considerable that they formed not only a respectable Militia for the defence of their own Settlement; but were sufficient to assist in repelling the attacks of the French upon other British Possessions in the West Indies, and this was the case as late as the Reign of Queen Anne. In process of time the original culture of Pimento, Indigo Cotton, and the trade in hard and dyed Wood being exchanged for that of the Sugar Cane, the Process of tillage and its manufacture was found to be laborious and destructive to European constitutions and it became expedient to import a number of negroes from Africa.

The introduction of the cane and manufacture of Sugar with the consequent importation of thousands of Africans as absolute Slaves made a change not only in the Policy but in the original Population of the Colony and the White Man finding his manual exertions superseded by those of the Slave, became enervated, and abandoned himself to indolence and luxury, which assisted by the fatality of a tropical climate, swept off the majority of that class of persons.

The continued influx of the Blacks by importation, contrasted with the reduction of the White Servants (with whose introduction into the colony no care was taken to mingle White Women) gave considerable alarm to the Ruling Authorities, particularly as plots of insurrection had been discovered, and as the Proprietors seemed disposed to avail themselves of the Utility of the Negroes in other capacities besides the tillage of the Land, by which a great number of White Mechanics and Artisans were put out of employment.

In order to provide a timely remedy by which the Population might be more properly balanced, the then Legislature, calculating that one armed and disciplined European was equal to forty unarmed and ignorant Slaves, judg'd it expedient to pass the first "White Servants' Act" to compel every Proprietor to have on his Plantation one of the former to forty of the latter.

Notwithstanding this interference of the Legislature, the Planter finding it his Interest, as the danger of insurrection became less in proportion, to the advancement of the Slaves in moral and civilized habits, to avoid the expense of employing White Men, and no European for half a century past submitting to be indented beyond the term of ordinary Apprenticeship, the White Population continued to decrease so much, that in aid of the act alluded to, the Legislature had recourse to Bounties on their importation: but this scheme also falling short of the desired effect, and the Planters becoming more and more burdened with the deficiency tax, the Legislature at length relaxed the law in their favour, by allowing their Wives and Children, as well as other white females and children, to be given in at the Annual returns as Free Tenants in lieu of White Adult Male Servants, and thus the original intention of the Law has been rendered futile and ineffectual, or only tended to augment the revenue in those cases, where the Planter was unable to procure these substitutes for Adult Male Servants; and at this period those Planters who have White Domestic Servants, or can procure a small Tenement (called a Free Tenancy) in one of the Towns, or in any part of the Island, and induce White Females (from the age of Childhood to that of extreme decrepitude) to reside there free of rent are not absolutely compelled to employ any White Man whatsoever on his Estate, Those Substitutes being returned as their Servants and Tenents when they actually have no connexion with the Plantation and this plan serves to keep up appearances and to support an unjust and absurd policy whilst many of His Majesty's free coloured subjects in the Towns, are entirely destitute of employment.

LETTER FROM RALPH B. CLEGHORN* TO ZACHARY MACAULAY.

Private. S^{t} Kitts, 29 June 1833.

MY DEAR SIR,—

I thank you for your very kind note of the 6th May just received. I had previously received Mr. Pringle's letter with the pamphlet of Betto Douglass's Case and earnestly hope it may produce some effect on Lord Romney. We are in possession of the plan of Emancipation suggested by the Colonial Minister—it does not meet either the expectation or wish I had formed upon this question. If however immediate and UNCONDITIONAL freedom cannot be obtained for the Slaves, the plan now under consideration (modified and elucidated) is perhaps the best approximation yet proposed. It seems to me to embrace these great benefits to the Slave—Compulsory manumission—Admission of his Evidence in any case—an enforcement of the due serving out of food & clothing according to the Amelioration Act, (which has never yet been done)—it gives him a greater proportion of time and removes from the power of the Master the awarding of punishment and thank God at last abolishes the flogging of females. I do not while I hail these benefits approve of any law which shall compel a man (slave or free) to work for a person to whom he may have many, or any objections—or to purchase that which was always his own—his freedom. Yet I confess my decided opinion is, that the Slaves will not easily be brought to agree to any plan which shall preclude their unrestricted admission to entire Emancipation, especially the emancipation of the will—enabling them to select their own employers. Who can serve a hard master? It is the cause of God because its effects comprehend the spread or suppression of His holy religion. He will therefore take it in hand and will I have no doubt suggest ere long (perhaps has already done so) some safe and satisfactory plan to abolish the horrid system. The dissentions and revengeful feelings which the agitation of this question has given rise to even in this small community is hardly credible. The persecutions that have awaited the advocates of Abolition have been and are most inveterate—'tis indeed these that have driven me to the absolute necessity of putting myself entirely on the kindness of my friends to interest themselves in obtaining for me an employment from the Colonial government. It may seem strange to your mind that in consequence of my having espoused the negro cause positive combinations have been formed against my pecuniary prospects. Clerks of the white population, (planters) who are of course the only buyers have been desired not to purchase a single article at my Establishment, and so pertinaciously adhered to, has this system been, that I am now endeavouring to make arrangements with a person who is to assume my concerns. I say endeavouring because even he is apprehensive that he may, by his association with it, intail upon himself part of my unpopularity. Should this prevent any final arrangement as proposed between us my intention is to bring everything to the hammer, where for the sake of getting bargains the liberals will I dare say sacrifice their revengeful feelings. I do most earnestly entreat you to use your endeavours for me. My earlier life, education and habits, all have been adapted more to the discharge of public duties. The unforeseen and unprovided-for death of my late Father threw every thing into confusion and compelled me to avail myself of the most eligible thing that offered, and that seemed to be the opening a store in this Colony. My politics and irresistible feeling against the system of Slavery and Colonial policy generally have eventfully proved that this sort of business is not my place. At first in 1826 I did well and acquired an income of from £1100 to £1300 Cy a year—but as my principles became known so in the same proportion did my popularity grow on the decline. I freed my own Slaves (never desiring to own one—but I acquired some by marriage and some by bequest in all 14 or 15). I induced my wife's only sister to manumit hers 4 or 5 in number. I undertook the Cause of the Colored people, I became the avowed enemy of Slavery, and as a consequence a victim to the displeasure of the Planters and the others of the White Population. Of my sincerity in the cause I feel that you will not entertain a doubt or I would direct your attention to the great risk that I have ventured to run in poor Beta Douglass's Case in which if the fact of her being enabled by pecuniary assistance to evade the grasp of her persecutor could be traced and fixed on me, I should incur under an act of this island a liability to pay her owners an amount which in her case would be most enormous she having been in concealment about 8 years. It is true that I have only known her case within the last four. The Act to which I allude provides that persons who shall be in any [way] instrumental in keeping slaves from their owners shall be liable to pay such owners not less than 12s. Currency per day for every day of such absence of said slave. Up to this date I have fortunately avoided this penalty, although general suspicion attaches to me the blame in many cases of which I am innocent. The last "reporter," with Beta's case in it, I am quite alarmed about. I wish Pringle had left out that passage in my letter to him, in which I acquaint him, of my having re-opened the letter in consequence of having seen Beta on the previous evening. We had by insinuations almost persuaded the people that Beta was off the island, and by this means had lessened both her risk and mine.

My recommendations to the Government I proudly submit have been both strong and respectable. Three successive Governors—The Attorney and Solicitor-General and The Chief Justice of this Colony and the Rural Dean of this diocese—all of these gentlemen are Anti-slavery in their professions, and all have a knowledge of my principles in a greater or less degree. To the Governors and the Attorney General I have been most communicative because from them I had a right to expect most support. But the new plan seems to require that persons should be selected to fill offices in these colonies who are unconnected with the Colonies and liberal in their views. It is an unenviable task to speak of one's self, but in the present case I am as I said before absolutely driven to this by necessity. Inasmuch as I venture to hope for the protection and support of the Colonial Minister through your kind interference I ought not to omit to put you in possession of all the facts connected with myself to enable you to meet (if any should arise) such objections as may be taken to my claims.

Of my opinions and sincerity with reference to the slaves I apprehend you know enough. With reference to my connexion in the or with the Colonies I have to state that although I was born here, I left it wh my Father for education in England at the age of five years and did not return until 1823. I remained here and married in June 1824, directly after which my Father's death (which took place at Sea on his passage to England) required that I should proceed to London, whither I went and remained until the end of 1825 and returned to this place as a Merchant through the kindness of a friend who advanced me merchandize on the faith of my previous good name and my expectancies under my Father's will. In 1829 I was elected from among the free colored people to be their Delegate, and proceeded in the early part of that year to England in that capacity (at this time I had the happiness and honor to be known to you), and came back to St. Kitts in Decr 1830. So that you perceive my whole residence in the West Indies has never exceeded at any one time three years. And I can most conscientiously declare, that I never (and I trust I never shall) imbibed any other feeling, upon the subject of West Indian manners and policy than that of disgust and opposition, which is only strengthened and increased as I know more of them. My education was liberal and although perhaps ill-devopd has at least been English—English are my ideas and my feelings are English.—Thank God for it.

I have not a single relation in the West Indies but my wife, and her only sister is the only inmate of my house. Though Creole women they are blessed with English notions, having breathed the air of liberty in England. My circle of friends is necessarily very limitted, so few agreeing with my politics. The Attorney General of this Colony is my most intimate friend—there exists between us on politics a congeniality of feeling which renders us agreeable to each other. Between him and the Governors who have preceded the present one, my unenviable situation as to social intercourse was looked kindly upon and between them my time has been principally divided. The Lt Governor now presiding over us is not what I considered those to have been who have preceded him. A previous residence of I understand 30 years in the West Indies, is a disadvantage to His Excellency—his age too, and ill-health combine to unfit him in my opinion to govern a West Indian colony to the benefit of the slaves or the colored people at this crisis particularly.

I presume the wish of the Government would be that the gentlemen, whom they may appoint to carry the new system into execution, should have some local knowledge and experience, as well as being free from prejudice, and unconnected in the colonies. In one individual from England all these requisites cannot be blended. And being possessed of the former and I venture to assert divested of the latter too, and having suffered in my pecuniary prospects from having devoted myself to the Cause which has occasioned this projected new order of things, I respectfully submit that mine is a case for the countenance and support of the Government. An absence from the scene of action, and at a distance of 4,000 miles are disadvantages to me which can only be remedied by the vigilant assistance of my friends in London. By which I would not be understood to mean that, except yourself, Dr. Lushington and those gentlemen who may through your influence give me their support, I have any friends who can serve me in this way. Upon you, my dear sir, I confidently rely. The great uncertainty as to the time at which the appointments will be made, and my desire to avoid an expense by travelling which my injured circumstances are not equal to but upon the most unavoidable necessity prevent my personal application to you. And although I am firmly impressed with the belief that your charitable consideration for me, will not allow this to operate to my prejudice, yet if you think it advisable and the time will admit of it, I will immediately take passage for London after such communication from you. Dr. Lushington was good enough to promise me his support whenever I preferred a claim for employment, and at that time there was some probability of the Patentee of the Provost Marshal's office either resigning or compounding with H.M. Government. I now learn that this is more likely than ever. I merely mention this to convey to you that I find it my imperative duty to accept anything with which I may be favored. The income derivable from the P. Marshal's office is about £1,400 Currency p^r^ annum. I cannot but confess that my wish is, in case of a preference being allowed me to be employed in some way whereby I might be more beneficial to a class of people whose interests I have espoused even to my own prejudice. But it is nevertheless due to my circumstances and my family however small, that I put no obstacle in the way of procuring an immediate means of repairing my pecuniary prospects. The general opinion here seems to be that Commissioners or Receivers will be appointed, or Stipendary Magistrates. You are aware that I have been put in the Commission of the Peace already and am so far eligible to such an appointment, but I fear that these will hardly be so well paid as other offices in consequence of the number that will be necessarily created. My dear sir I find I have grown into a greater length than I contemplated, and fear I shall have tired your patience for which I beg to be excused. The immense importance of this communication to my future prospects must plead for me with you. The Officer who last administered this Government has just left us for England, his name and address Col^l^ Nickle, 25 Princes Street, Haymarket. He can confirm what I have stated for he knew the facts respecting the set that has been made at me in consequence of my politics. My intention was to have copied this letter fairly, but the vessel I find will sail to-day and not to-morrow as was expected, I must therefore apologize to you for its roughness and disconnectedness of style. I leave my case my dear sir entirely in your hands and most earnestly entreat your kind interference for me. As so favorable an opportunity has offered I have thought it my duty to write a few lines to D^r^ Lushington. The letter is left open for your perusal with the request that you will be so good after having read it to seal and cause it to be forwarded. I offer the following summary as a brief sketch of the situation in which I stand.

Recommendations and Testimonials from persons in the service of the Crown and its representatives. A total freedom from prejudice in favor of any West Indian constitution or policy. Possessed of local knowledge and experience, and having suffered very much from devoting myself to the cause of the slaves. These with your interest give me sanguine hopes of success. Accept, my dear sir, my best wishes in which I am joined by M^rs^ Cleghorn for the health and happiness of yourself and family, and believe me

Your much obliged and very faithful serv.

RALPH B. CLEGHORN.

P.S.—I have omitted to state that Lord Goderich promised by letter to Col^l^ Nickle to attend to my claims with those of others, this has been repeated by M^r^ Stanley.

LETTER FROM ZACHARY MACAULAY TO DR. STEPHEN LUSHINGTON, M.P.

Harlech, Merionothshire.
24 August.

MY DEAR LUSHINGTON,—

In this remote part of the world it is wholly impossible for me to [do] anything effectual to aid Cleghorn whose letter I enclose. He speaks in it of having inclosed one for you, but it has not made its appearance here and I presume is already in your possession. I certainly feel extremely anxious if possible to do something for Cleghorn. His conduct has been highly meritorious and uncompromising, and we ought not to spare a little personal trouble to mark our sense of his worth. I will write to other friends on his behalf, but I have little hope from any but you and Buxton, who has already promised to do what he can for him. I will also write to Lefevre.* My address will be on the 26th and 27th at Barmouth, and on the 28th, 29th, 30th and 31st at Dolgelly, both Merionethshire.

I cannot think of you without thinking of the triumph you have so largely contributed to achieve. Would it had been more complete. But considering how far we have advanced beyond the most sanguine hopes, we dared to entertain two years ago, it were sinful to murmur. Kindest regards to Mrs. L.

Ever yours most affectionately,

Z. MACAULAY.†

Next year he sailed to Sierra Leone and shortly afterwards became its Governor. In 1795 for his health and for experience he took passage to the W.I. in a slave-ship and reaching England in July, later returned to Sierra Leone, but resigned his post 1799. He now started in business as an African merchant and became very active as an abolitionist of slavery. He died in 1838, and his bust was erected in Westminster Abbey. (See a long notice in D.N.B.)

Said W^m^ Hall became bound in £24,449 to various creditors. Jamaica. John Spooner, esq., App. John Cossley, John Cossly Hall and Judith Burrows, Resp.

Appellant's Case.

In 1742 the Resp. Cossley applied to Zachariah Bourryau (the App. son-in-law) to borrow £4,000 or £5,000 by way of mortgage of his estates. App. agreed to purchase the moiety for £4,300 or £1,000 by way of fine for the lease of the other for 7 years at £400 per annum rent, and by Ind'res of Lease and Rel. of 29 and 30 July 1744 Cossley and Judith B., his mother, in consideration of £5,300 granted to the App. one moiety of Eolus's Valley containing 2,370 acres and a moiety of 173 negroes, and she released her dower and demised the other moiety for 7 years at £400 rent. The App. discovered the estates were subject to 2 mortgages, one of June 1723 by said Cossley's father, whereby he conveyed est. to Peter Roe and Jos. Hiscox against a bond to Aaron Lanego for £1,950, the other dated 25 July 1741 reciting that Hiscox had paid L., and Cossley owed Jos. H. son and heir and Ex'or of said J. H. £2,596, and in consideration of £300 grants est. to J. H. for £2,896. App. refused to proceed, but Cossley agreed he should retain £3,800 to discharge incumbrances. App. paid Hiscox £1,000 in part, and lent Cossley £943 more. 20 and 21 March 1745 Cossley & B., in consideration of said £943 granted to Bourryau the demised moiety on mortgages. 9 and 10 July 1746 Hiscox in consideration of said £1,000 and £3,186 paid by App. released the est. to Bourryau as trustee.

Cossley then borrowed £400 by R^d Oliver, esq., and he and his mother executed a mortgage of the demised moiety to him 20 Jan. 1746, and on 25 March 1748, C. borrowed £276 of O. and O., in collusion with C., threatened to proceed and ship some of the negroes, whereupon App. paid said O. £676. Sarah C., sister of John Cossley, set up demand for £1,500 c. under her father's will. App. exhib. his Bill 2 July 1748 in the C^t of Ch^y in England. Sarah C., on 9 Jan. 1749, attained her age and claimed £1,500 c. and £254 c. arrears, and by Ind. of 6 March 1749 for £240 paid by R^d O., assigned leg. to him as security. 9 June 1750 App. in consideration of £367 paid to O. and £908 to S. C. they confirmed to App., and it was charged to the demised moiety. 30 July 1752 there was due to App. £2,950. C. went in Dec. 1750 from E. to J'ca and seized the pl^n and sugars. 10 and 11 May 1752 C. and his mother for £10,000 c. pretended to be paid by John Cossley Hall sold one moiety of est. 20 July 1753 App. filed his Bill in J. 1755 Defd^ts deny fraud. 22 Nov. 1755 App. prayed for possession of est. but motion refused. Appeal to H. M. in C. To be heard 6 March 1758. Written: "Order made to give possession to M^r Spooner."

The Appellant's Case.

App. married Benj. Blake,* Esq., the Y^r, of J'ca, and after became by the decease of her brother entitled to the fee simple of a pl^n called Deans Valley. In 1745 her husband and self employed the Resp. as overseer until the death of B. B. 16 Nov. 1753. The est. profits decreased to nothing and she discharged him 9 Feb. 1754. He then claimed great sums and brought an action Aug. 1754, which in Feb. 1755 she won. 8 July 1755 he filed his Bill and claimed £739. She complained of his bad management, the last crop he put in made 28 hhds. whereas the crop of 1756 has already made 120 hhds. 31 March 1758 it was decreed that the Master should take account. Ann Rigby died 1 Feb. 1755, and the App. obtained adm'on de bonis non of R. R. with his will annexed, and adm'on of her estate, and sued out a scire facias. Resp. pleaded they had received from M. P. est. £14,575 c., that 85 negroes of the value of £5,084 c. were subject to a mortgage made between Verney Philp of Vere, esq., and Olivia his wife and said M. P. and Hon. Tho.
